

Fourfold Word Song

Unknown Rivers A.L. IViv

mf Tell it both near and far, each hu - man is a star:
mf Per - fect and per - fect join heart to heart, loin to loin.
p A - bove the star - ry blue Our La - dy sheds her dew

Do what thou wilt. As be - low so a - bove; we know the Do what thou wilt. When, where, how, and with whom ye will, there in ec - sta - sy. And with his migh - ty art the Snake en - law is love, the ser - pent and the dove: Do what thou wilt.

 is no doom. Wear jew - els, burn per - fume, Do what thou wilt.
 wraps the heart, now let the Æ - on start to make us free.

f 4. Hail to the Secret Lord!
 Hail to the Holy Whore!
 Blessing and praise!
 Hail to the Conqu'ring Child,
 Most awful and most mild!
 Worship with passion wild
 For all our days.

mf 5. In love and liberty
 And light and life must be
 No grace or guilt.
 May the exalted fires
 Of our sublime desires ritard Rise on the Æon's pyres;
 Do what thou wilt!

Text: Fr. P.A., A.L. IIIxx

Tune: Thesaurus Musicus, London, 1744 e.v.

Arrangement: M. Dionysos Rogers

Transcription: A. & X. Burton